James Gillespie Blaine.

The ship on which James G. Blaine em barks will bear across the Atlantic ocean the greatest living American statesman and one of the most perfect types of the man created by America's free institutions, Without office or place, he represents the majesty of American power-the power of

For a quarter of a century Mr. Blaine has been a most prominent figure in American politics and American history, and the politicians of Europe, whose combinations extend beyond their own borders, have watched his acts and utterances, and sought with the deepest interest to fathom his policy regarding this hemisphere.

Representative, Speaker, Senator, Secretary of State, and, but for an oligarchy which rules some of the states. President of the United States, Mr. Blaine, in all his public roles, has sustained himself as "first among his equals"-proved himself the peer of any man who ever held similar power. As a political leader he rivals Gladstone, as a debater he stands with Pitt, as a diplomat the equal of Cayour, as a political historian he ranks with Macauley.

Mr. Blaine does not need foreign travel and the tour of Europe, which he now takes, to enlighten him as to the world's condition. and only makes the voyage for rest and recreation, intending to see the countries which steam and electricity have made our immediate neighbors.

The leaders of liberal thought in England, men like Gladstone and Morley, will greet Mr. Blaine as one of the most advanced exponents of their ideas, while Parnell, Davitt, and the other patriotic Irishmen will hall him as the firmest friend of a redeemed Ireland.

The republicans of France-men like Grevy, Clemenceau, and Ferry-will welcome Mr. Blaine as the greatest representative of the American people, and regard him as the friend of freedom wherever found.

Bismarck will see in Mr. Blaine the man who, as the leader of a great party in America, when Germany was struggling for unity, and through unity for the peace that follows power, said German nationality was greatly to be desired.

The son of the man who freed and gave itical rights to more than twenty Russian serfs, and who for doing it sacrificed his life, can give cordial greeting to Mr. Blaine for his efforts as a statesman in endeavoring to secure freedom and political rights to the enslaved in America.

In Rome Mr. Blaine will meet two sov ereigns-Humbert, the temporal king, who rules over the kingdom of Italy, and Leo the spiritual sovereign of over two hundred million Christians and perhaps the greates of these spiritual rulers for centuries past In Madrid Mr. Blaine will meet Cas tellar. Zorilla, and the other republican leaders who have liberalized the old Bourbon monarchy and are fast bringing the people of Spain to understand what freedom means. In Vienna and Pesth he will find parliaments representing the people and controlling the once despotic Haps

So in all Europe, wherever this representative of America's free institutions goes, he will find that "the little leaven" of free dom planted in America is "working the whole lump"-that the right of all men to rule themselves and the right of all men of all races to be free, both first established here through bloody wars, are now both being recognized by people and rulers in -that the old world and its inhabit ants are taking lessons from the new.

Last but not least, the great minds who control the commercial world will listen to words of wisdom as the exponent of the soundest practical business ideas in Every American at home will watch with ofound interest each step in the tour of Mr. Blaine, while those who meet him in foreign lands will stand proudly erest in his presence, glad to receive and present him as the foremost private citizen of the American republic and the western hemisphere, while all will wish him health and pleasure, with a happy return in due sea son to his own land, where his name and fame are honored and respected.

Flower Mission Day. Thursday of this week will witness the observance in this city of a most beautiful custom-being a general distribution o flowers to the inmates of the various hospitals, reformatories, and other public in-stitutions by the ladies of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

Nothing that could be done by these followers of Him who went about doing good can more quickly reach a responsive chord human nature than the carrying o God's most beautiful and eloquent of inani mate things to the pain-tossed couch where the phantoms of a diseased brain chase one another through the weary hours of day and the dismal watches of night, unre lieved save by a mournful procession of medicine vials. Flowers at the bedside o those who are sick, amid near and dear ones, possess a mute eloquence, but when kindly kands lay them with the sick among strangers, their every petal speaks grandly of the open air, of babbling brook, and ver persuasion could so reach down into the depths of the human heart, and recall the days of unalloyed love, ambitious hope and childhood's home. There is naught of selfishness in this stranger's act, who places before them these flowery mementoes, and nothing is asked in return save an earnest thought of the Master who is love and life. But a week ago the gardens were depopulated that our dead heroes' graves might be decorated; now we ask that again they be called upon to yield of their fruitfulness, that the living may be gratified, the dis tressed comforted. Those who have flowers could not better dispose of them this week than by sending them on Wednesday or early Thursday morning either to Mrs. C. N. Whitney, No. 1111 H street northwest, or to Mrs. M. E. Cohen, No. 513 F street northwest, where they will be arranged into boujuets for willing hands to distribute.

Canadian Commerce.

The value of all merchandise imported from the Dominion of Canada for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1896, was $37,314,636, of which $12,005,533 worth were free of duty, and $25,309,103 were dutiable. Of the free goods imported, eggs were of the greatest value, costing $1,893,672, and of dutiable goods barley stood first, with a value of $7,175,397, and "sawed lumber" next, with a value of $6,391,571.

The exports to Canada during the same period amounted to $44,858,039, of which amount $15,198,163 worth were free of duty and $29,659,876 worth were dutiable. The Canadian government collected on these American goods duties amounting to $6,-These figures are taken from one Canadian account, while another shows that the exports of merchandise to Canada amount to $48,451,011, and the United States accounts make the amount only $33, 462,800.

Coal constitutes the largest item of our exports to Canada, iron and steel goods coming second, cotton third, and breadstuffs fourth on the list.

An Enjoyable Musicale.

The pupils of the Mount Vernon Semi nary gave a very enjoyable musicale last Saturday evening. Both vocal and instru-mental selections were of a high order and their rendition was highly creditable to all concerned, especially to Madame Kaspar, who has charge of the musical department of the seminary. ALBAUGH'S GRAND OPERA HOUSE The third week of summer opera at this heater commences to-night, and Gilbert & Sullivan's ever-popular "Mikado" will be the attraction. The company is especially fitted for a proper presentation of this phenomenally successful work, and crowded houses may be expected throughout the week. The cast is a follows: Mikado, Fred Solomon: Nauki Pos. Signor Monteeriffo. (the orwinal in the United follows: Mikado, Fred Solomon; Nauki Poto, Signor Montegriffo (the original in the United States); Ko Ko, Walter Allen (his best character); Pooh Rah, William Broderick; Pish Tush, T. D. Dailey; Yum Yum, Carlotta Pinner; Katisha, Rose Leighton; Pitti Sing, Emma Krause; Peep Bo, Estella Mortimer. With such a powerful combination, as the foregoing nothing but a first class performance could be given. New costumes and scenery will also lend their charm to the islimitable burlesque. NEW NATIONAL THEATER.

NEW NATIONAL THEATER.

On Tuesday evening Manager Rapley will place before the public the first selection made from the extraordinarily good series of light operas to be presented by the Fitz-Gerald Opera Company during the season. "Nanon" is the opera, and the cast, of great individual and collective strength, will be as follows: Nanon Patin, Miss Clara Lane, Ninon de L'Enclos, Miss Helen Von Donhoff, Maintenon, Miss Jennie Reifferth; Gaston, Miss Mary Greenwood; Marquis D'Aubigne, Mr. Harry Staudish; Abbe, Mr. Joseph B. Greensfelder: Hoctor, Mr. Edward Gervalve; musical director, Mr. Max Hirshfield. The chorus is exceptionally good, a fact that has been demonstrated by every rebearsal during the past week. Summer opera at the National is certain to be a continuous success.

An excellent bill has been prepared for this week. The Roths, celebrated duelts, will make their first appearance and Adele Martiett, the popular character singer and dancer, will return to delight oud friends. Fannie Bloodgood, Alle Smith, and Georgie Blake are also on the programme. The sensational Parisin dancers, Mile. Dorst and M. Oreste, have been re-engaged; they will appear in new ose-tumes and dances. Senator Coarles Blake and the Primrose Cuartette will also comain. Immediately after the theater performance the summer garden is thrown open, and the audience can, for the one ticket, hear a good open and concert. REHNAN'S THEATER AND SUMMER GARDEN,

AN EXTRA SESSION NEEDED.

The Monetary Interests Demand Congressional Legislation. Council Bluffs Nonpareil: The financial future is affected by the large receipts of the treasury. Foreign commerce does not improve, the imports for April exceeding the exports by nearly $16,000,000.

the exports by nearly $16,000,000.

Danville (Va.) Register: The last statement from the Treasury Department shows that the expenditure for eleven months past amount to $253,050,302, or $30,000,000 more than for the corresponding eleven months of the preceding year, and will probably run up to $370,000,000 by the end of the current year, so that the prospect is fair for a surplus of $100,000,000 this fiscal year. This statement is alarming, and shows the urgent necessity of a reduction of taxes in one form or another. It is a very true saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that a rich government makes a poor country. Our country has been getting poorer for several years past, and still the government is accumulating each year millions of money more than it can spend.

Boston Truecler: From the statement

more than it can spend.

Boston Traveler: From the statement made by the Treasury Department it appears that the treasury surplus is to be much greater than was expected even by Secretary Manning. The revenues have been larger and the expenditures smaller than was anticipated. Mr. Manning's estimates were $336,000,000 for receipts and $314,000,000 for ordinary expenditures. The receipts will probably reach $370,000,000, while, owing to the failure of the river and harbor deficiency bills, the expenditures will be only $296,000,000. The surplus, therefore, at the end of the current year, will be $104,000,000, and that for 1888 can hardly be less than $125,000,000. This is a startling showing and a most striking commentary on the inefficiency of the forty-inith Congress.

Boston Globe: Word comes from Washminth Congress.

Boston Globe: Word comes from Washington that an extra fall season of Congress is now looked forward to as a necessity. That is exactly what it is. We showed in these columns several weeks since why President Cleveland would be fully justified in calling Congress together in October. The fluancial interests of the country are in need of relief from the threatened hoarding of money in the treasury vaults. The government is now steadily gathering into its coffers about $120,000,000 a year more than it needs to meet all its bills. This is a tremendous drain on the pockets of the people. If it goes on long the treasury will be overflowing, while the people will not have enough money to carry on their business with. In some way or other this exhaustive process must be stopped. The further accumulation of money at Washington can be prevented, and the general welfare demands that it shall be done.

GRADUATES' ASSOCIATION.

To Secure Fellowship, Salal and Business Advantages.

A large and enthusiastic meeting wa held on Saturday evening in Spencerian College halls by the graduates of that institution during the past twenty-one years who organized themselves into an Associa stitution during the past twenty-one years, who organized themselves into an Association of Graduates of the Spencerian Business College, of Washington, D. C.

The objects of the association were declared to be to secure acquaintance and good fellowship and social, intellectual, and business advantages by the fraternal union of the 750 graduates of this popular and beloved institution.

Brief and spirited addresses were made by Mr. Willey O. Isou, who was made chairman pro tempore, and by Mr. James B. Albright, secretary pro tempore. Also, by Mr. Byron S. Adams, Percy G. Jackson, J. Allen Boteler, A. J. Miller, Edw. T. Pettingill, Richard W. Emmons, Wm. H. Heaton, John T. Parker, Ellis W. Brown, Wharton E. Lester, P. J. Brennan, Maris Prandi, Mary L. Wooster, M. D., Ella G. Miss Mamie Simons, Prof. Lent, and Prof. Anton Gloetzner are also to participate.

A "popular" Tailor is almost invariably "Stiff in the bit"-that is to say-a high priced one.

One or two very Swell youths declare that "Jones" is the only Tailor in town who can make their clothes, in fact, that it's the proper caper to have "Jones" for your tailor, and the lambs willingly submit to being fleeced for the honor of having their clothes made by the Tailor of the howling swell whose position as a leader of his "Set" is assured.

Popular Tailoring, as we understand and practice it, is Tailoring combining all the elements of artistic cutting, perfect fitting garments, first class workmanship, and, though last not least, prices within the reach of all. For instance, we are now prepared to make clothes to order at $20 a suit from such materials as Scotch cheviots, English tweeds and homespuns, wire twist cassimeres, American serges, Harris cassimeres, and Canadian cloths.

These Suits will be cut and made artistically; well trimmed; stinted in nothing, and we guarantee a perfect fit every time. For Samples of these elegant suitings and Sample garments made up as a guide, look in our large Show window, Market Space front. Such offerings are seldom made and never that we know of outside of our House.
